ALL HONOR TO DEMOCRATS

Who Surrender Party Affiliations and Stand by Their Flag and Country. No Desire to Abuse His Fellow Citizens-Strong Testimony of an Invalided Officer, Who Has Always Been a Democrat.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer SIR:-When I published in the Intel-Egencer of the 22nd Instant an oblivary notice of the gallant Captain Mitchell, who, with his command of a single company of the Fifteenth United States Infantry, was surrounded by 800 Fipinos, under General Callies, near Sinaloan, Island of Luzon, on September 15, and after a desperate battle, lasting for several hours drove the enemy off the field with a loss of 25 per cent engaged, including both commissioned officers of the company, and when I criticised the acts of certain citzens of the United States who have been holding treasonable correspondcace with the Philippine insurgent commanders, I did not intend to pro-voke a controversy with the editor of the Register, and did not intend any reflection on the patriotism and loyalty of any respectable Democrat, for I rec-ognize that there are some members of that party who are just as loyal, just as patriotic and just as solicitous for the welfare of our army and the honor and integrity of our government as any Republican, and many of these men testified their devotion to principle on a purely domestic and financial issue when they believed their party to be wrong. No stronger proof of patriotism and fidelity to country could be given than to surrender party affiliations, and I honor all Democrats who now on a much greater issue stand by their flag and country. Undue Haste of a Newspaper.

Therefore I must express my surprise at the haste of the Register in accus-ing me of a desire to "abuse my fellow citizens" who may differ with me on the policy of the administration in its effort to establish peace and order in the Philippine archipelago, and maintain our rights under a treaty with a sovereign power, which treaty was apcratic votes in the United States senate, by and with the urgent advice and influence of Mr. Bryan himself, who was then patriotically serving his country in a military capacity in prosecuting a war for the liberation of the oppressed subjects of Spain. My denunclation and criticism was not directed at any of my "fellow citizens," all of whom have a perfect right guaranteed to them by the Constitution to discuss all public questions affecting the national welfare, but it was intended to expose and hold up to public execra-tion those "so-called citizens who, influenced solely by partisan prejudice are not content to confine their opposition to rational argument at home, but who engage in treasonable communication with the armed enemies of their country, and have urged the Filipinos to resume hostilites against our army, and continue their attacks upon our troops until after the approaching presidential election, when they promise, in the event of the election of Mr. Bryan, he will withdraw our army and abandon the Philippine Islands to their fate. The minds of human and civilized beings shrink from the contemplation of the dreadful results of such a policy. surrender the government of the Philippines to the treacherous and blood-thirsty Tagalos would mean the exile or execution of all the intelligent and progressive Filipinos, who have accepted American protection, and the inauguration of a state of anarchy so appalling that the Island of Cuta when under Spanish domination would be as a paradise compared to the conditions that would then prevail, and either the United States or some other civilized power would be compelled to forcibly intervene and restore public order.

Spirit of Philanthropy Wanting. What has become of the broad spirit of philanthropy that actuated the rank and file of the Democratic party when they yoelferously demanded we should wage a war against Spain for the liberation of the inhabitants of Cuba? Have they no longer any sympathy with the oppressed, and by demanding the relinquishment of our sovereignty in the Philippines do they really want to relegate the millions of Filpinos to a condition of barbarism unparalleled in history. I do not think the American people will thus shirk their duty and responsibility to mankind. As I do not often engage in public discussion, and as the statements made by me in the communication to the Intelligencer may be doubted or disputed by the Register or some of its correspondents, I hereby append the testimony of a commissioned officer of the army, Lieut, Harry A. Ely, of the Forty-sixth volunteer fantry, who was invalided home after partly recovering from an attack of smallpox and yellow fever, and who, upon his arrival in New York last Tuesday, published the following statement in the New York Sun of September 21.

Lieutenant Ely says that letters have been found on dead and living Filipinos written over the signatures of well known persons in this country, advising the insurgents to keep up the war until after election day. This advice was couched in the strongest terms, and in several instances it was given in circulars, prepared and sent out by an organization in this country, and some of these treasonable communications have been turned over to the war department, which has not, as yet, seen fit to make them public t to make them public.

Refuses to Vote With His Party.

Democrat, but Lieutenant Ely is a Democrat, says he will not vote with his party the National Guard, and in the Spanish war served in the Fourth New Jersey teers. He went to the Philippines with his regiment as first lieutenant, and was stationed at Manila and in Southern Luzon, He further says:

most treasonable character. It was literature, which, if it had been found on Filipinos, friendly or otherwise, would have led to their being court-martialed and hanged. Martial law prevails in the Philippines, and this is e with any one found harboring or assisting the enemy in any way. Near-ly all the letters have been of the same tenor. The writers state the consen sus of opinion of a majority of the citizens of the United States is oppo to holding the Philippines, and that if the insurgents continue their warfare no matter how unfavorable the conditions may be now, until after the November election, there will undoubtedly be a change of administration, and that Mr. Bryan has promised that upon his being elected, the Philippines will be evacuated by the United States troops

Aguinalde Would Flee. "There is no doubt in my mind, and every officer in the Philippines will say the same thing, that if it were not for the support given them in this country the insurgents would lay down their arms, and Aguinaldo would flee to Chi-We have his cabinet now, and we have most of the leaders, and these are pleading with Aguinaldo to come in and give himself up. The statement that there is no longer organized resistance is a true one. ' A band of 600 or 800 that is sometimes mentioned in dis patches is without what might be called a military leader. They are no longer under generals or officers of what was once their army. They are guerrilla bands, and choose their own leader, and make an attack upon some small detachment. sense is no more than an organized re sistance than are the Sicilian banditti. There will always be a lot of these bands, just as there are in Italy, and soldiers will be needed to suppress

Testimony of Democratic Soldier Here is the testimony of a patriotic Democratic soldier, and he is the sort of an American citizen whom we delight to honor, and will defend against the machinations of his enemies who shoot at him in front, as well as from the cowardly attacks of renegades in the rear.

In conclusion, I beg to say that I do not wish to hide behind a nom-de plume or conceal my identity, as the writer of the article that has so much excited the Register's editorial ire, and I therefore sign my full name in this letter. I now ask the Register, with equal frankness, to inform the whether or not it approves of the acts of those disloyal citizens who, according to the testimony of honorable officers, are encouraging the Filpinos to American soldiers, who, in the execution of their sworn duty, are obeying the orders of the commander-in-chief of our army. If this is answered affirmatively, then all I have said applies to him, and to all who justify and uphold such views. Very respectfully,

T. H. NORTON. Wheeling, Sept. 24.

The market found some support from sundry causes at times to-day, and prices were at one time lifted to a were at one time lifted level quite substantially over that of Saturday at the close. Weakness persisted in some individual stocks, and the announcement of a small failure early in the afternoon put a stop to the advancing tendency of prices, so that the closing was heavy and dull, with only a few net gains remaining. The special points of weakness were People's Gas and Brooklyn Transit, the former dropping below 83 before the close, and the latter touching 48, both being the low prices on the present movement. This late weakness had a sympathetic effect elsewhere among the specialties, Tobacco, Sugar and the New York public utilities being notably affected. The steel stocks were prominent in the early strength of the marcoming year for the scale of wages.

Several stocks in the group were marked up from 1 per cent to 1½ per Tennessee Coal came under cent. pressure under the advance, and wa marked down 4 points, but rallied over a point, and closed with a net loss of 1% per cent. The whole group yielded to some extent, with the later weakness in the market. The rally in the market was due in no small part to covering demand from the shorts, and to the absence from the board room of some of the influential bear traders, on account of the Jewish holiday. The re-sumption of mining in some of the coal mines had a rather bracing effect on the market, and published estimates of the available reserves of coal airendy mined, detracted somewhat from un-easiness over the effects of the strike, but there was no radical change in the spirit of the speculation, and the under tone of sentiment continued decidedly apprehensive of the future of the money The fallure of a stock ex change firm was unimportant in itself. but the exhaustion of customers' gins and their failure to extend them which was assigned as the cause, at-tracted some attention. It is a matter of notoriety that many brokers have demanded an extension of margin fo their customers, and no small part of last week's liquidation is attributed to that cause. In the money market interest rates were not changed, but the outgo to the interior continues on a liberal scale. The growth of stringency in the foreign markets, especially London and Berlin, promises renewed pressure upon New York for gold, although the bills of commercial exchange in the market to-day were sufficient to depress the sterling rate a fraction. Last week's small exactions by the subtreasury were due to the large outgo slons, and on account of the renewal of

Under the influence of rains in the northwest, October wheat opened a shade to ¼475c higher at 75½ 67½ c. The steadiness was for a moment only, however, as the statistics were bearigh and Liverpool was indifferent to Saturday's advance here. World's shipments were 6,950,000 bushels. Of this 1,696,000 bushels was Russian wheat and 1,080,000 bushels Danubian. The amount on ocean passage showed an increase of 2,130,000 bushels. Plenty of long wheat came out, some of it foreign stuff and October dropped to 75c. The market steadled for a time on the clearances which, in wheat and flour were equal to 746,000 bushels, but heavy primary receipts and an increase in the visible of 1,966,000 bushels turned the scales again and October dropped to 77%c. Corn was dull but firm, advices being that both the continent and the United Kingdom were liberal bidders for corn, the latter asking for offers for shipments running all the way to next July; Wet weather, making the talent less positive about an early movement of the new crop was also a help.
